Partner Final Meeting

 Location: Thessaloniki, Greece

 Date: 27 February 2026

On 27 February 2026, the ENTRECC Partner Final Meeting was successfully held in Thessaloniki, Greece, marking the official conclusion of the project.

During the meeting, partners reviewed the project's achievements, assessed its overall impact on the Cultural and Creative Industries (CCI) sector, and finalized the remaining reporting procedures. Participants also exchanged reflections on the collaboration developed over the past months, highlighting the strong partnership and constructive transnational cooperation.

Evaluation forms were completed to support the preparation of the Final Impact, ensuring a comprehensive assessment of results and outcomes.

The meeting concluded with the awarding of participation certificates by the hosting partner, PYLON ONE (Greece), recognizing the active contribution and commitment of all partners throughout the project's implementation. A commemorative group photo followed, marking not only the successful completion of the ENTRECC journey but also the strong spirit of cooperation developed over the past months.

Although the project has formally come to an end, the partnerships built, the shared expertise, and the common vision for supporting the Cultural and Creative Industries remain strong. Partners expressed their intention to continue collaborating on future initiatives and new Erasmus+ opportunities, building on the foundations established through ENTRECC.
